

PARAMEDIC/FIREFIGHTER

GENERAL DEFINITION

Performs difficult protective services work in regard to emergency medical services and fire suppression; engages directly in providing advanced life support and stabilization procedures at the scene of a medical emergency and during transport to medical facilities; engages directly in fire suppression activities and response to fire related incidents as required; does related EMS, fire and emergency services work as required.

ORGANIZATIONAL RELATIONSHIP

The position will work for the Department of Public Safety. Work is performed under the general supervision of the Operations Chief.

TYPICAL TASKS

- Acts in the capacity of Paramedic/Firefighter.
- Provides Advanced Life Support and other EMS stabilization procedures.
- Performs rescue from potentially life-threatening situations.
- Assists in the protection of property via fire-suppression and fire related activities.
- Assists with Hazardous Materials Incident responses.
- Prepares accurate records and reports as required for EMS and fire related responses.
- Operates emergency equipment and vehicle as required.
- Assists in maintenance of equipment related to the County EMS/Fire service.
- Assists in maintenance of buildings and grounds related to the County EMS/Fire service.
- Assists in maintenance of vehicles related to County EMS/Fire service.
- Assists in maintenance of water distribution appurtenances related to fire suppression.
- Replenishes supplies and materials as needed for County EMS/Fire service.
- Assists in fire and safety inspections/investigations of public and private property as required.
- Assists in providing EMS, Fire, and general Safety training to the public.
- Assists in providing EMS, Fire and Hazardous Materials training to volunteers.
- Other tasks and activities as assigned in reference to EMS, Fire and Emergency Services.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGES, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

Extensive knowledge of emergency medical care and advanced life support techniques; working knowledge of fire fighting techniques; ability to work cooperatively with other emergency services personnel under hazardous or stressful conditions; ability to assist in managing emergency medical services incidents making appropriate decisions in regard to patient care; ability to assist in managing emergency fire incidents making appropriate decisions in regard to fire suppression and property protection; ability to foster and maintain a positive working relationship with volunteer personnel and the public; have an aptitude for mechanical and manual work and be in excellent physical condition. Must be willing and able to develop a working knowledge of all aspects of Public Safety activities within Franklin County and be willing and able to complete various tasks associated with the provision of these services.

TRAINING, EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE
